CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Members will be interested to learn that the Club is nearing a solution with the Council of the City of Sydney to the problems created by the Ordinance 70 Notice served on us some time ago. Details of the settlement will be announced in the next issue but will not be finalised until we appear before the Land and Environment Court on September 26, 1983.

A building sub-committee was formed to carry out much of the detailed work involved, and completed their report to the committee recently. This report was accepted and negotiations subsequently finalised with the council subject now to the agreement being confirmed by the court.

At a recent olympic fund-raising lunch held in the Club Room the Club was presented by the Australian Olympic Federation with a shield as a token of their appreciation for the generosity of our members in raising funds for the 1984 Olympic Games Appeal. This most attractive plaque has been hung in the first floor bar. It is my intention to arrange a function to hand a Club cheque to the Federation and members will be invited to participate.

Club member Terry Jackman was all smiles recently at the world premiere of his Australian film "Phar Lap". My wife and I were delighted to be invited to the premiere and the supper that followed. Naturally, because of its theme there were a very large number of members of Tattersall's Club at the premiere who obviously thoroughly enjoyed the evening. Thanks again Terry and please accept our best wishes for the success of the film not only here but overseas.

Phar Lap's great record and the subsequent controversy is well documented in the film and the scenery and photography are absolutely breathtaking. Phar Lap won the Melbourne Cup in 1930.

By way of linking the two stories Carbine won the Melbourne Cup in 1890 and recently this Club received a request from the Carbine Club to have made available to it a wall in the Sportsman's Room for a permanent display of Carbine Club memorabilia. The Carbine Club use Tattersall's Club for a large number of its functions each year and our committee were delighted to make available a wall in the Sportsman's Room for the sole use of the Carbine Club. Their various plaques, flags etc are in the course of being attached to the wall and I am sure will make an attractive addition to the Sportsman's Room.

The NSW Cricket Association has offered to display the Sheffield Shield in Tattersall's Club for two weeks, probably in the first floor bar and it is being handed over at a cocktail party being arranged for Thursday, October 27. When the details are finalised notices will be posted in the Club and I urge members to attend as that evening is the eve of the first home Sheffield Shield match for the 1983/84 season when NSW play Victoria. Both teams and their managers have been invited to attend the cocktail party. Dirk Wellam, the NSW captain, has already accepted on behalf of his team and I am waiting to hear from the Victorians.

Club usage continues to be of concern and for the first five months of the Club's current financial year numbers were 46,433 for 1983 compared to 50,807 for 1982, a drop of 4,374.

Finally we extend our warm and hearty congratulations to the president, committee, secretary and members of Brisbane Tattersall's Club who celebrate their centenary on Monday, November 7 next. We have enjoyed a close bond of friendship with this Club over all of those years and I know from personal experience through visiting Brisbane on business, for racing, for the Commonwealth Games and on holidays that our members are always made especially welcome by Brisbane Tattersall's Club.

BIG SCORE BY NORM

Committeeman Norman Rogers goes into bat. He scored plenty of dollars for the Olympic Fund. The "batting wicket" was at the successful fund-raising, combined drive by Tattersall's and City Tattersall's Clubs. It was staged in our beautiful First Floor Club Room.

Below: At the Olympic luncheon the Hon Michael Cleary, MP, Minister of Leisure, Sport and Tourism and Syd Grange, OBE, MVD, president of the Australian Olympic Federation, makes a point.

MANKIND'S GREATEST DANGER?

Brilliant author, Morris West, suggests the world is being swept by a psychic epidemic of plague proportions. He quotes Carl Gustav Jung's:

"It is becoming more and more obvious that it is not starvation, not microbes, not cancer, but man himself who is mankind's greatest danger; because he has no adequate protection against psychic epidemics, which are infinitely more devastating in their effect than the greatest natural catastrophes". (Modern Man in Search of a Soul).

So we're our own greatest danger, whether you agree or argue I believe we have within our own cabletow and strength of character the ability to immunise ourselves against the psychic epidemic or problems we meet today.

Morris West writes: "More and more in my autumn years, I am forced to the Voltairean conclusion. A man must cultivate his own garden, but he must leave the gates open, so that men of goodwill may enter, share bread and wine and go out again with a message of welcome for others on the pilgrim road.

"We have to teach them that man cannot endure without forgiveness, and that vendetta, among individuals or nations, is fruitless barbarity. However, not even an army working in concert will cure man's madness overnight."

To some this may sound like a message of despair, a final epicurean gesture against the encroaching madness. I do not see it so.

"There are many gardens where many travellers enter. Messages of hope and charity do go out, seeds blown by a vagrant wind. Where they fall, God knows; but some take root and flowers bloom in strange places, a beauty in miniature, a tiny cosmos defying the lunatic chaos of our time."

This I believe — and may I commend the new novel "The World is Made of Glass" by Morris West.

WISE OSCAR WILDE . . .

Member mate of mine likes to celebrate . . . at the drop of an ice cube. He was under fire at a "morning after" breakfast. Lenny quoted Oscar Wilde "Only the dull are brilliant at breakfast!" he said.

WINING, DINING AND CLUB NEWS

New member Mike Da Silva and Miss Petrina Devlim entertained sponsor and seconder Bill Edgar and Harold Hill with Mrs Hill to dinner in the dining room at Saturday's dinner-dance. The party was joined by Dr Henry Hart and Mary Glynn.

Denise and Colleen Keys visited the dining room recently with their children Drew (6) and Tricia (4) to enjoy dancing and dining. They celebrated Drew's birthday. It's an ideal way for a family to enjoy memorable events.

It was good to see Randwick trainer Pat Murray and wife Margaret in the Club. They entertained Bill and Noelene McCouage to dinner at Tattersall's after a day at Warwick Farm Races. Pat and Margaret are very fine hosts.

It's got to be the Story of the Year.

Harold Hill put his hand up to order a cup of coffee from the stewardess at the snooker auction. He had a player promptly "knocked down" to him for $150. Dear coffee!!! The story has a happy ending. The player purchased made it to the final sixteen — so Harold receives $1,000. (Very sweet coffee eh Harold? Ed.)

Tattersall's Club made ex-AJC handicapper Ken Goodwin an honorary member in recognition of service. It's good to see this great weight assessor enjoying Club membership.

Phillip Scarf was happy to arrange this birthday party for his mother. Mrs Antoinette Scarf enjoyed a happy party at Tattersall's. Celebrating, the group included husband Paul Scarf, Andrew Scarf (son), Camille and Marianne (daughters), John and Alexandra Furlong and family friends Stephen Paino, Mark Morgan, Carla, Harley Nash and Ida Salata.

Bert French, Jimmy Grant, Eric Trevail, Jimmy Campbell, Cec Poole, Eric Adnam are all well-known golfers and members of the Old Lakes Golf Club. They enjoyed a very happy reunion dinner at Tattersall's. Many old incidents were recounted which caused much merriment and a grand evening was had by all. Take a bow Eric Adnam for your effort in arranging the party.

Tattersall's was the happy scene for a party organised by Geoffrey Pike, celebrating his father-in-law's 68th birthday. In attendance was father-in-law Arthur Fletcher, wife Ruth, daughter Lorraine, grand-children Brett and Belinda.

It was a very happy evening at Tattersall's when John and Denise McGuire had a little birthday party for daughter Sarah. Her eleventh with sister Emily and brother Patrick and grandmother Dorothy McGuire and friends, Simone Jensen and cousin Georgia Dodd. A nice family gathering for all to enjoy.

Committeeman Tony McSweeney with his delightful wife Mollie celebrated their 41st wedding anniversary in July.

Tony is tops in remembering the nice things of life — I know many of his kind acts and have seen him in action. Mollie and Tony, we wish you many years of continued happiness, coupled with the wonderful love your family have for you both. Ed.

It was not surprising to see Keith Miller at the Club lunching a couple of important international guests. (They have moved round Sydney very quietly). His guests were Charles Murless (his uncle Sir Noel trains horses for the Queen) and George Herbert Porchester, son of Lord Porchester, manager of the Queen's horses.

It was delightful to see such fine types with dignified manners enjoying the Tattersall's hospitality in the very pleasant company of the redoubtable Keith. Good manners are so important — I couldn't help note the fine conduct of these two young gentlemen and how they graciously met and reacted on introduction. Ed.

Bernard Webb was delighted to gather some nice people to make a memorable 35th wedding anniversary for Mr and Mrs E.T. Sullivan. It was a party of 14. All the men members (past and present) of Bondi Surf Bathers Life Saving Club and have known each other for over 40 years since they first associated as junior members of that Club. Bernie Webb is a candidate for position of director at the coming elections of the STC.

(We wish him well in his nomination. Ed.)

Rothman executive Norman O'Neill, travel man Bob Lavigne and committeeman Peter Twigg were all smiles at the Club's Olympic Games luncheon.

Club member Arthur Huxtable found an ideal way to celebrate his birthday with his wife Marie and two sons David (6) and Philip (4). He chose Tattersall's Club. It resulted in a most enjoyable evening for the family.

Nicholas and Christine Papalia arranged this happy event to celebrate Jonathan Papalia's 14th birthday. The party consisted of parents and Jonathan's brother David and sister Jane. There's really no better place than Tattersall's to celebrate a family party.

David and Anne Doring, their three daughters Megan, Katrina and Namomi with Mark Fiore dined at Tattersall's to celebrate Katrina and Mark's engagement. They remarked that they couldn't have found a more happy way to spend the memorable evening.

Mr Bob and Mrs Harriett Sagers, visitors from Florida, USA remembered their association with Tattersall's Club. They were accompanied by their friends Mr and Mrs Geoff Eastment and Victor Vadas. The party enjoyed the dinner-dance in the delightful dining area. Victor celebrated his birthday that evening so it was a reason for much merriment. The Sagers are keen racing fans and enjoyed a race-day committee lunch the same day as guests of the AJC at Warwick Farm.

Bob Brown and wife June arranged a Tattersall's dinner party in recognition of his father-in-law Jim Roeder's 80th birthday. The happy people celebrating included Jim and Bett Roeder, Lloyd and Elsie Brown. Congratulations to Jim reaching the magical three score and ten.

What a gaggle of good guys. In the Club recently I found cricketers greats Keith Miller and Harold Larwood (how's that for an opening attack?), member and Olympic gold medallist swimmer John Devitt and renowned "Parky" Parkinson, not interviewing, but talking to actor John Meillon. Cricket Association's Bob Radford talked cricket with John Kennedy. You'll agree there's a wealth of talent there. The conversation was certainly not dull in the august company I can assure you.

Tattersall's dining room on Saturday nights is a great place to bring the children for a grown-ups night out. The Bourke Vesuvio is a sure-fire winner and a bright conclusion to a family evening. Reg and Helen Fountain and Toni McFie (Helen's mother) from Devonport, Tasmania, and the two little boys Harry and John Fountain.

Mr and Mrs Dick Small staged a party of friends and staff to welcome Mr Hanno Oelz who is visiting from Austria and is working with Dick's company as a technical consultant on products which Dick imports from Austria. Our snow man is to be found investigating as there is a suspicion that the real reason for Hanno Oelz's visit to Australia is to act as the ski coach for the famous Tattersall's Buck's Week, at Warruna Lodge at Perisher.

Olympic Games Lunch MC "Nugget" May offers a toast! The compliments should really be directed to the man himself — he was great!

Genial Club personality Brian Cassidy with wife Betty, celebrated their son-in-law's birthday at the Club. Their daughter and grand-children Michael, Timothy and Andrew made the party a merry occasion. "We all very much enjoyed the pianist and the special requests," said Brian.

Mr Clive Edwards and wife Margaret with guests Mrs Elizabeth Redknapp, Miss Karolynne Redknapp, Mr George Jeffries, Miss Barbara Jeffries and Miss Margaret Booth were all there in the party dined at the Club recently. They celebrated the birthdays of Margaret, Karolynne and Clive — what a pleasant thought; to have a joint party for the trio.

Mr and Mrs Jim Watson entertained grand-children Jennifer and David Gudgbon in the dining room. It was a promised night out for a birthday which was delayed by grandfather being in hospital. It was a very happy event and the Watson's as usual were very fine hosts.

Club regular Sol Green entertained grand-daughter and grand-son Amanda and Anthony Green at dinner at Tattersall's. They celebrated Tony's admission as a solicitor. Supreme Court Chief Justice Sir Laurence Street, performed the honours admitting him.

Dr Gerry Marish and Adrian Abbott enjoy a snack beside the third floor swimming pool.

Club member Terry Naughton and his wife Margot entertained some of their special friends to dinner at the Club recently. Terry and Margot's guests were David and Maureen Gillingham, Winston and Patricia Readford and Tony and Leonie Nevill. The group have been close friends since early university law school days in 1961. Terry was very complimentary about the quality of the food and the hospitality plus the service of Andy and his dining room staff. Terry and his guests also made full use of the band and dance floor. He said that the evening reminded him of a mini-law ball of olden days when he attended the Trocadero.

(Pleasant memories are very precious aren't they. Ed.).

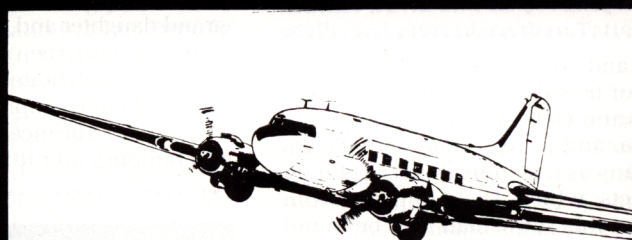

FLASHBACK! Minister Hon Sir James Killen at the Sydney Cup Dinner in 1982. Jockeys Wayne Harris and Ron Quinton dwell on his words as Os Bates holds the Sydney Cup. Sir James recently announced his retirement. We wish him well. Wayne Harris has resumed riding after major surgery. All sportsmen wish Wayne a very successful return. Congratulations to Ron who recently won the Jockeys' Premiership.

GREAT SNOW IN '83!

Ski Club's Spirit at Top Level

Tattersall's skiers returning from our Thredbo and Perisher outings have voted 1983 as the year to remember. Not only has the snow recovered from the erratic behaviour during last season, but each week was memorable for its spirit of warm friendship and for magnificent meals. It has been suggested that Chief Epicurean Neville Amy could levy a membership fee on Tattersall's skiers.

July is the month of the year for our skiers and it commenced with a family week at Roslyn Lodge, Thredbo, from Saturday, June 25 to July 2. Roslyn, owned by the Australian Alpine Club of Australia and named in memory of Roslyn Wesche, who was killed by a freak avalanche in 1956, is a modern and comfortable lodge in an excellent resort. We are fortunate to have access to it each year at this time. Tattersall's members and their families included Ashley and Julie Reed, Baden and Valerie Gleeson, Malcolm and Jennifer Stenning, John and Betty Carrol, Peter and Deidre Magnus, Michael and Alison Hickey, Richard and Paula McPhail, Nicholas and Susan Packham, Peter and Gabbie Burrows, Graham and Rosaline Virtue and visitors Mark and Debbie Darling.

Following an unusually good opening of the season in mid June, the weather proved how fickle it can be in the Southern Alps by providing a mixture of blizzard, rain, sunshine, hard crust and excellent snow. Tattersall's skiers proved equal to all of the conditions even though El Supremo, Peter Magnus, despite an intensive training programme atop the MLC centre, is reported to have a parrot on his shoulder who yells 'pieces of eight' to Peter's patients.

After a hard day on the slopes, the evening meal was always a star attraction. Leslie and Rob White who manage Roslyn, provided the most delicious evening meals. The customary snooker tournament was the source of keen and hilarious competition with Betty Carrol and Nick Packham emerging as 1983 champions.

All who attended this year voted 1983 as the year to beat.

If the weather at Thredbo had been fickle by the time our Buck's week commenced on July 16 at Wirruna Lodge in Perisher, it had learned to behave and our twenty or so skiers started the week in clear sunny days on excellent snow. 'Old timers' of this now famous week maintain it was the most successful yet.

Mal Gunning, Bas Phillips, Graham Smith and Bruce Cormack about to attack the slopes.

Among the twenty who assembled was Bas Phillips, George Andrews, Bruce Cormack, Terry Forrest, Ski Club Secretary Anthony Berkman and predecessor, Russell Debney, making a return after an absence of a few years. David Madden, a regular visitor from Melbourne, enjoyed his first year's skiing as the guest of Perisher management, having attained the qualifying age. Regular Sydney visitor, Peter Perry again joined our group. Member Dick Small brought along his guest, Hanno Oelz who instructs skiing in his native Austria. Graham Smith had three Brisbane guests, John Porter, John Grant and Robert Wensley, who flew down by private plane to enjoy the week. Dr Matt Dean and Ron Wade were 'first time'

Tattersall's members. Brian and son Mark Worrall spent four days skiing before having to return to Sydney.

One of the early events of the week was an invitation from Ski Club President Peter Evans and his wife, Shirley, to join them at Avalanche Lodge for pre-dinner drinks and savouries. This event is an 'open house' at Avalanche and the traditional drinks are 'Black Velvet' or 'Black Velvet'. It was a great warm up for the week though some skiers reported having trouble in keeping their bed steady before going to sleep.

Hanno Oelz, in addition to being our resident ski instructor, introduced an Austrian night when, assisted by Dick

PETER ASHBY'S WINDING-ROAD-BACK-TO EPICUREAN EVENING

Two wine functions in the same day!

I accepted an invitation to attend a luncheon and wine tasting at Le Relais Fleurie in Mittagong. The menu was superb and the wine list varied and interesting including older vintage white and red wines, South African and Italian reds and a 1950 port. Then I faced up to the Epicurean fund raising Olympic Games function at Tattersall's Club in the evening. By arriving late I missed the tempting Tattersall's canapes accompanied by the Alicante Flor Sherry but previous experience of this popular flavoursome dry sherry merely made me keener to taste the variety of excellent wines available later.

The fillet of fish with artichoke was accompanied by the Chateau Tahbilk 1982 Marsanne and the Moordah Estate Verdelho. Marsanne is a variety of grape and produces a Chablis-style wine with fruit flavour and a crisp dry finish.

The 1983 Verdelho from the West Australian Moordah Brook Estate was a richly fruity wine that should develop in intensity with bottle age.

A palate clearing Champagne Sorbet was followed by Fillet of Beef with walnut stuffing and the famous 1980 Redman Claret and 1980 Chateau Tahbilk Cabernet Sauvignon. The beef drew whippers of delight from all present and the accompanying wines perfected the presentation. Both the reds will improve with further bottle ageing and may be cellared for many years with confidence.

Lyn and Les Cox enjoyed the dinner and agreed it was a memorable occasion.

The dinner drew to a happy conclusion with individual Paris Breast and imported and local cheeses.

Petit fours, coffee and lashings of Reynella Old Cave Tawny Port made me wonder at the pleasant fate of finding the CAVE.

Marcia and Ced Clewett were most impressed and firmly stated their intention to attend future Epicurean functions.

Lucky door prizes were won by D. Turner, Peter Barker and Joy Laurrie, Brian Gallagher and wait for it, no, it couldn't possibly be, OH! yes, it is, NEVILLE AMY.

Baskets of wine were taken home by J. Hickey, Mrs Denny Sims, Michael Wren and lucky Peter McGrath.

Chief Epicurean Neville Amy welcomed the cheerful gathering with a noticeable husky voice that noticeably became less husky as the evening wore on to its happily floating conclusion. As a finale to the stage presentation Neville Amy was delighted to present a cheque for $800.00 to the Olympic Appeal to Tattersall's Chairman Keith Moremon.

It was an excellent effort for the Olympic Appeal — The Epicureans once again giving wholehearted support to the Club. — Ed.

EXCITING BILLIARDS AND SNOOKER TOURNAMENT

Syd Lane

Since our last magazine Doug Jordan has had a serious accident whilst driving on the Barrier Reef (not snorkeling). Doug was involved in a head on collision putting him in hospital with a very bad injury to his pelvis, plus lacerations and shock. By the time these notes reach you, Doug should be back on deck and hopefully, well on the way to full recovery. We all look forward to seeing him back on the second floor.

I am also happy to report on this occasion that David De Mestre is making a good recovery from another nasty accident, and although still on crutches is still able to visit the Club.

Many interesting matches have been played in the Snooker and Billiards Tournament. Some of the highlights being the victory of Sir Nicholas (Nick) Shehadie defeating Harold Hill; Sam Terley who defeated Don Storey; Clive Milliken swamping Kevin Simmons; Richard Piekarski defeated Col Pearce and John Hoyle; Graeme Rainnie — Norm Rogers; Peter McGrath after two good victories was beaten by Brian McElvogue; Len Williams beat Keith Abrams; Bob Lavigne had a very good victory over Jeff Woollard; John Blamey showed great form to beat Arthur O'Connor before succumbing to Stuart Adams. Other results are listed below.

The eight finalists who will have sorted themselves out, some have had difficult passages. Notable contests being between Lee Bluett and Eddie Charlton — Eddie was only three behind on the colours and was there for long odds-on to win but Lee potted a very good Green, an excellent Brown and ultimately a most difficult Pink to win. Stuart Adams had to give big starts to most of his opponents but came through with flying colours. Veny Hrouda, Terry Anson, Mike Fitzgerald, Richard Horne, Bill Richards and Brian McElvogue are also to be commended for their steady play and good results.

FINE CLUB SUPPORT

Tattersall's Club and City Tattersall's joined in a magnificent luncheon staged at Tattersall's Club to augment an Olympic Fund Appeal. Over $16,000 was chalked up by great team work and generous response. Sportsmen and members rallied and the result from a raffle for an autographed bat of the centenary test cricket team, donated by the Benson and Hedges company was a bonanza.

Racing man Bob Charley won the bat and bookmaker Robbie Waterhouse offered $2,000 for it as Bob re-donated the bat for the best offer received. Bookmaker Phil Marts was successful in obtaining this collector's piece of cricket history. It was estimated the sum of $6,000 came from the centenary bat donation.

ABC's "Nugger" May was introduced by Tattersall's chairman Keith Moreman who greeted the gathering. He briefly touched on the Olympic Games history and handed proceedings back to the redoubtable "Nugger" who was in fine story-telling form.

Guest of honour, the Minister of Leisure, Sport and Tourism, Michael Cleary, MP, looking fighting fit, was warmly acclaimed by the members present. City Tattersall's Club chairman Laurie Taylor thanked members for their excellent support. Prestige Limousines, the company responsible for a new Rolls Royce hire service, donated a car for the day. Happy and top-rating bookmaker member Roger Manning paid $400 for the use of the "Rolls for a Day". Thanks Roger. Ed.

Tattersall's committeeman Norman Rogers was called upon to "extract" some dollars from the sportsmen. Norman in his classical approach achieved his goal and performed in his "down-to-earth" genuine manner which is so much a part of this genial man.

All members of both Clubs including those that did not attend should be very happy in the knowledge that there is an excellent spirit of support in the heart of Tattersall's and City Tattersall's Clubs.

SWIMMING . . .

A large crowd of interested spectators among whom were chairman Keith Moremon, treasurer David Dransfield, committeemen A.J. "Tony" McSweeney, Ken Upton, Norman Rogers and Neville Amy were present when the swimming season ended. A new Club champion emerged.

THE CLUB 40 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP.

(Donor: Michael Bartley Esq.)

1) Greg Goold, 2) John Stubbs, 3) Hugh Keller, 4) Russell Debney. After a false start the field got away evenly, all turning together, however Greg gained a slight advantage from the pushoff enabling him to land the decision in a close finish from John with Hugh and Russell inches away in third and fourth places.

THE CLUB 80 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP.

(Donor: Bruce McHugh Esq.)

1) Greg Goold, 2) Michael McCormack, 3) John Stubbs, 4) Hugh Keller. Greg was again the winner with Michael, John and Hugh in that order. Michael looked to have a winning chance at the turn, but Greg finished strongly for a decisive victory.

A. GRADE 40 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP.

(Donor: John W. Utz Esq.)

1) Wal Meakes, 2) William Hannan, 3) John Ward, 4) Ian Joye. This was a spine-chilling event with Meakes, Hannan and Ward swimming stroke for stroke with a split judges' decision in favour of Meakes. The fourth place getter Ian Joye was suffering from a bad bout of gastritis and flu which affected his performance.

80 YARDS A. GRADE CHAMPIONSHIP.

(Donor: Bruce McHugh Esq.)

1) John Nicholas, 2) David Robinson, 3) Wal Meakes, 4) Andrew Barrell. Czar John Nicholas proved too strong for the opposition drawing away in grand style from David with Wal finishing third whilst up and coming Andrew a close fourth.

B. GRADE 40 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP.

(Donor: William Kendall Esq.)

1) John Keating, 2) Gordon Salier, 3) William Orme with Norman Blanshard who was omitted from the Joye Honour Event in fourth place. John streaked away with a winning break and was too good over the final ten yards.

SILVER SHARPE TROPHY.

(Donor: A.J. (Tony) McSweeney Esq.)

1) Michael McCormack, 2) Dan O'Connor, 3) Antony King, 4) Rick Glover. Mike recorded his second victory in this prestige event with a total of 202½ points from Dan O'Connor 198, Antony King 190 and Rick Glover 176½ displacing David Robinson and brother Ken for the fourth prize money. Michael equalled the record of the writer in winning the season's point score in successive years and I can safely say it was no mean feat.

TOM POWELL TROPHY.

(Donor: Tom Powell Esq.)

1) Rick Glover, 2) Greg Goold, 3) Antony King, 4) Michael McCormack. This trophy was in doubt up to the last event. Perhaps the unlucky competitor was Antony King who led until the final month, went on holidays and came back full of vim and vigour causing a loss of a second in his handicap, and all credit to the victor who ended the season with a paralyzing "Rogilla" finish in landing this coveted prize.

TED JOYE HONOUR EVENT.

(Donor: Ian Joye Esq.)

1) Neville Amy, 2) Charles Griffiths, 3) Jack Levy, 4) Syd Kay. Committee member Neville was too strong, relegating Charles into second place with Jack Levy and Syd Kay following. Charles has finished in second place previously, maybe next year will be the turning of the tide.

JACK MANDEL FAMILY EVENT.

(Donor: Adrian Abbott Esq.)

1) Edward and Ian Joye, 2) Andrew and John Barrell, 3) Ken and Rick Glover. This keenly contested trophy was won in convincing fashion by our esteemed Ted and son Ian with a total of 58½ points from the Barrell lads on 48 with Ken and Rick Glover 41½. The friendly rivalry in this popular event has to be witnessed to be believed.

HILLSTON 80 YARDS HANDICAP.

(Donor: Alex Hillston Esq.)

1) Gerald McCormack, 2) Jack Levy, 3) Michael McCormack, 4) Andrew Barrell. Gerald deserved his hard earned victory with a total of 166½ points from Jack Levy 165, brother Michael McCormack 156½, whilst unlucky Andrew Barrell was on 155½.

KOMINATOS TROPHY.

(Donor: Denis Kominatos Esq.)

1) Jack Levy 15. 2) Greg Goold and Ken Glover 10 Dead Heat 2nd. Jack had a runaway victory in this series recording a popular and outstanding performance.

JUNE POINT SCORE:

David Dind 41, Rick Glover and Harold Hooper 32. Evergreen David lands the final points score, scoring seven wins and a second to gain the honour. (Not bad for an old timer eh what!)

All Monthly Point Score Trophies are donated by John and David Keating in memory of Leo Keating.

The Donor of the T.M.S. Trophies is Norman Rogers.

Owing to the generosity of Bill Kelleher and Gill Stone all prizewinners will be presented with a "Kelleher and Stone" wine goblet.

During the winter recess an event over 100 yards (finals only) will be held every Thursday under the supervision of Alan Ball.

Please note in your diaries that the 1983-1984 season will commence on Tuesday September 27 next, with our Presentation Evening in the form of a Smorgasbord to be held on Wednesday October 12 commencing at 7pm. Ladies are especially invited.

Small, he prepared the famous Austrian feast known as kaesspaetzle, accompanied with the traditional schnapps and beer chasers. This feast was especially memorable for Bas Phillips as it coincided with his birthday. Later, Hanno introduced a delightful Austrian custom known as a jagertee party in the snow. This involved setting up a primus beside a suitable tree in the snow and offering jagertee to members and friends who wished to ski to the tree. Jagertee is similar to gluhwein and, apart from being refreshing, ensures a relaxed style in skiing for the remainder of the day. Hanno was considerate enough to allow a reasonable time between his two events.

The chefs among the ski group were again to the fore with Peter Perry and Russell Debney preparing a superb Coq au Vin and Bas Phillips again being Master Chef, ably assisted by George Andrews, for the regular last night curry.

As usual, one night was allocated to dining out and, this year, Franz and Christine Breitfuss entertained the group at Sonnenhof Lodge. They provided snow-cat transport and the appetite was whetted with a sauna and spa. Some skiers took tradition a bit further and were seen rolling in the snow to get the full effect of the sauna. Our hosts were gracious and generous and a great night was enjoyed by all the Tattersall's skiers.

The lodge in Perisher that is associated with Roslyn at Thredbo is Perisher Huette, whose members kindly entertained us to pre-dinner drinks. Among their members was the famous Ken Breakspear, whose name has been associated with skiing for fifty years. At seventy-eight, he skis regularly in Australia and overseas and is a regular competitor in cross-country skiing events. We thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated the hospitality of Perisher Huette members.

All through the week, skiing conditions were excellent, with a fall of six inches of dry snow on the Tuesday night. With the assistance of Hanno, the standard of our skiing benefited from such good weather and snow. The week will long be remembered by those lucky enough to have attended. Snow conditions are impossible to forecast but with such great company, the 1984 Buck's week is already assured of success.

The enjoyment of our two events in the snow is greatly assisted by the excellent facilities available to us at Roslyn and Werruna. We very much appreciate the generosity of these two clubs in making their lodges available to us.

End of Snow Season Function

A Dinner Dance will be held at Tattersall's on Friday, September 16. This is a night for members, families and friends to wind up the season. Details can be obtained at Tattersall's office from Debbie Sibson.

PASSING OF A GREAT SPORTSMAN

Vic Richards 20.6.1983

Life member of Tattersall's Club. Will be sadly missed by his many friends on the green and around the Club.

He was a well-known Sydney businessman, former Wallaby Captain and Rugby Union selector.

At the time of his death, he was the Chairman of F.V. Richards, the women and men's clothing store, which was founded by his father in 1899.

Mr Richards retired as Managing Director in 1975 but remained active in the company which is managed by two of his three sons, Bill and Bob.

He was a well-known sportsman in his day. A member of Coogee Surf Life Saving Association, Randwick Rugby Union Club and the Australian Golf Club.

He toured Britain with the 1939 Wallabies though the outbreak of World War II prevented them playing, returning home as he used to say 'undefeated'.

A senior member of Tattersall's Club for 51 years and an active member of both Tattersall's and Double Bay Bowling Club.

He is survived by his wife Nance and his three sons Bill, Jim and Bob.

HAMS BRINGS HOME THE BACON!

Les Hams won his first-ever handball trophy at Tattersall's Club in the John Barnes "Play as you Come" handicap doubles event.

Les was partnered by master tactician Bruce Upcroft who found it necessary to do a "McEnroe" to ensure victory in the first round. Evergreen Bob Lipman and Peter Ashby were disposed of in startling cavalier fashion after conceding eight points start and drawing level at 20 points all.

Tony Baine and Stan Droder won the right to a replay although beaten easily in the first round by Doug Salier and Ken Glass. Tony and Stan were forced to give a start of twelve points.

In their replay they were matched against John Barnes and Charles Robinson with both teams playing from scratch. In a long game the Barnes-Robinson team won their way into the final opposed to Les Hams and Bruce Upcroft.

The rod in pickle flickered off the scene with hardly a whimper. The mercurial Arthur O'Connor elected to play using a racquet and was partnered by Bill Blakemore but were more than somewhat hampered by a decision of the tournament committee that the use of a racquet made a re-handicap necessary.

Les Hams and Bruce Upcroft settled down well in the final and played above their normal standards to overcome the determination of Charles Robinson and John Barnes. Les and Bruce enjoyed the luxury of a 22-point start but were able to hang on to their lead long enough to prove superior in a tight finish.

STATE DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

Tattersall's Club has a strong hand in the NSW State Doubles Championship to be contested at Tattersall's Club.

Five teams have entered and one team is the Rogers brothers, Ron and Neil, who have already won three titles as a team. Neil and Alex Hillston combined one year for a title win.

Other Tattersall's teams are Norman Rogers and Bill Blakemore, Bob Lipman and Ken Francis, Ken Glass and Bob Hill, Ven Hrouda and Bill Sellen.

Strong opposition from other handball clubs will ensure a close finish in the final.

Peter Ashby

TATTERSALL'S ROYAL SYDNEY GOLF

The weather was once again "spot on" for 91 starters to tee off at Royal Sydney in July. This is the largest field we have had for some time and the committee is to be congratulated for their efforts in making the day very successful. Support by members is very heartening to the organisers. Scores were indicative of the weather and the condition of the course with many fine scores being returned.

Bill Bevan and Tom Swiney won the 4-Ball with 50 points from Kevin Mercer and Bill Bosley on 48 on a count-back from Basil Phillips and George Andrews, the count-back going to the third individual hole. Bill bogied two of the last three holes to finish two under, and return 41 points off a handicap of three, a fine effort.

Members' singles was won by regular Russ Norwood with a score of 41, from Vice Pres. Kevin McCann on 41. Kev is shortly to leave on one of his frequent trips, to watch Australia do battle in the America's Cup and he takes all our good wishes with him.

Visitors' singles was once again won by Bill Moore from Manly Golf Club with a score of 44 points — Bill is one of the handicappers at Manly and we trust that the necessary adjustment has already been made. Runner-up was Perc Edward's guest Udie Solomon on 39. Ray Lenahan won the nearest the pin with a fine shot on the third.

Future dates: The Lakes — Thursday, 15th September; Pymble — Tuesday, 4th October; Manly — Championships — Thursday, 15th December.

The line-up as you can see is at prestige clubs — make a note of the dates NOW!

GOOD HEALTH AT TATTERSALL'S

The Sportsman's Room at Tattersall's Club was the venue for a celebration dinner given by the State's 13 Regional Directors of Health for the retiring Chairman of the Health Commission of New South Wales, Dr Roderick McEwin.

Present were: Dr Jim Lawson (Northern Metropolitan), Mr Alec Glen (Southern Metropolitan), Dr Chris Scarf (Western Metropolitan), Dr Geoff Olsen (New England), Mr Bill Godsell (previously Southern Metropolitan), Dr Derek Harris (North Coast), Mr Bob Taylor (Orana and Far Western), Mr Chris Mooney (Riverina), Mr Ken Miller (Murray), Mr John Bissett (South Eastern), Mr George Walker (Central Western), Mr Bill Lawrence (Illawarra) and Mr M. Howle (Hunter).

Arrangements for the evening were made by member, Derek Harris, from Lismore.

ROBERT WATERHOUSE FOLLOWS TRADITION

Bookmaking has been an institution in the Waterhouse family for nearly a century. Robert Waterhouse is one of the new breed of "bookies". He was the youngest ever to be granted a rails spot at Randwick. "Robbie" commenced in 1973 and has made excellent progress — coming from a well-experienced background. I asked him what he liked about bookmaking and in true fashion said "long-priced winners!" A very busy man on the job fielding horses, trots and dogs — city and provincial. He lauds the endeavours and dedication of AJC chief steward John Schreck. I asked Robert about his big-bet days. "I stood Scarlet Major up for $135,000 at Canterbury," he said. "Did you lose?" I queried. "Yes Os, it's easy to remember the ones you lose on!" "Do you think there will ever be an all-tote scene?" was my next question. "Well last year bookmakers contributed over two and a half million dollars to racing from under a hundred operators — contrast that with the over-600 TAB outlets and ratio expenses and you have your answer," said this retiring young man. Happily married to the very attractive Gai, they are enjoying the babyhood of son Thomas who bears the name of his famous trainer grand-dad Thomas Smith. Their new baby is expected in December.

ROUND WORLD FARES Too Good To Resist!

First Class • Business Class • Economy Class

It's sometimes cheaper to fly around the world than travel to a single destination and back. There are many ways of doing this and I have the very best fares available. For example:

First Class from $3660

Air India/Continental Airlines	from $3660
KLM/Continental Airlines	$4199
Singapore Airlines/Air New Zealand	$4799
Cathay/Pam Am or Qantas/TWA	$4999
Singapore Airlines/Cathay Pacific	$4999

Business Class from $3044

Alitalia/Continental Airlines	$3044
Singapore Airlines/Air New Zealand	$3799
Qantas/TWA or Singapore/Cathay	$3999

Economy Class from $2094

Alitalia/Canadian Pacific or Continental	$2094
Air India/Continental Airlines	$2270
Singapore Airlines/Air New Zealand	$2299
Air New Zealand/Cathay Pacific	$2305
Cathay Pacific/Pam Am	$2537

CIRCLE PACIFIC FARES

Flying with Pan Am/Cathay Pacific

First Class $3298, Business Class $1702,
Economy Class $1418

Flying Continental Airlines

Economy Class from $1423 to First Class from $3318.

Book early – some fares only valid up to 30 September.
